TERMS AND CONDITIONS

TNT Disco, (herein referred to as the Company), in consideration of the total amount specified, will provide the services of a DJ on the agreed date at the agreed location for the agreed performance times. The services consist of music selection from the Company's music library, and providing suitable equipment to play the selected music. The Company will make every effort to play all requests, subject to availability and suitability for the function and venue. The Company will take reasonable steps to obtain songs not contained in the music library. If, in the unlikely event the Company are unable to obtain a particular track, the Company will inform the customer as soon as possible.

The selection of equipment to be used at the event is left to the discretion of the Company, and is based upon the size and conditions of the event location.

The Company will provide the customer with a suitable DJ at the specified event that will play according to the details laid out in the terms of this contract. The DJ will provide entertainment to the very best of his/her ability. The DJ will be dressed appropriately for the occasion, and shall act as master of ceremonies during the event, making any necessary announcements along with playing the selected music.

The customer may request that the DJ plays longer than the contracted performance times. The Company will provide an extended performance at the specified overtime rate, provided any overtime is paid in full at the time of the request and no other obligations are pending. The availability of the Company for overtime cannot be guaranteed.

The DJ, at his discretion, reserves the right to discontinue all or part of equipment usage if the power provided is not capable of operating the equipment without risk of damage to the equipment, Company personnel or the public, or if the working environment constitutes a health and safety risk. The surface on which DJ's are to play cannot be dirt, grass, gravel, or any other unstable surface. If applicable, the customer agrees to furnish a facility that completely covers the Company's equipment from direct sunlight and rain. If service must be discontinued for any of the aforementioned reasons, the full balance is still due.

The customer will be responsible for any damage, normal wear and tear excluded, to equipment (sound/lighting equipment and/or music library) provided during the contracted time period, including the time allowed for setting up and packing away, unless damage is due to the Company's negligence.

DJ's are to perform in a safe, non-abusive environment. Any mistreatment or abuse of the DJ or anyone accompanying the DJ, in any way will result in the immediate discontinuing of services with full balance still due.

The customer shall ensure the venue will allow the DJ adequate access time for the setting up and taking down of any equipment. If the DJ arrives and cannot start the event on time due to situations outside of his control (i.e. if any part of the function is overrunning) no liability will be accepted, the DJ will not 'overrun' to compensate and the full balance is still due.

The Company is not responsible for obtaining any required licence. The customer shall ensure that any such licences are obtained at least 31 days prior to the event.

The Company is not responsible for power outages, nor is the Company responsible for any equipment that fails at the event. If equipment fails, the Company will, on a best effort basis, find suitable back-up equipment.

The Company is not responsible for any damage to the room or building where the services are provided.

The Company is not liable in any way for any injuries that may occur due to the actions of the customer and/or any of the customer's guests. This may include, but is not restricted to drunkenness or other forms of intoxication.
